Treasury Work of Chittaroog.

The practice of employing Probationers by Commissioners responsible duty contemporaneously is not fair either to them or to the public work. I think it undesirable to send Mr Venkoba Rao there.

For the few days remaining till the new Munsif joins the Place, I think the Dy C's recommen-

My dear Mr Nanjundaya

Owing to the absence of the Munsiff Mr Krishnaswamiyar on leave from the 10 February to the 22nd March 1902, Mr Subramanya Iyer has had to be detained at Head Quarters for charge of the Distt Treasury in consequence of which he could not commence the work of settlement of compen-sation for lands to be submerged by the Marikanve Tank or the Jagabandi of the Taluks entrusted to him. He was relieved of the charge of the treasury last week and goes to Marikanve at once.

Munsiff Mr Krishna
Samiengar has been since transferred to Kolar and he intends availing himself of the Summer vacation from the 12 instant I understand from Mr Sen Kanitkar from Ida. Who stand. transferred to Chitaldrug that he intends to come here only after the Court Recess —

As to the Mr. Chengiah Chetty and Mr Subramanya Iyer will have to be on Jamabandi work during the whole of this month and perhaps the next month too, I beg you will kindly move the Govt to send an Asst Comr here for the charge of the Dt Trg or allow me to put Mr Basavaradhya BA my Shanstdar ~~to~~ in temporary charge of it till Mr. Srikantiah fordas arrival — The favor of early orders is solicited —

My dear Mr. Narain Rao

In your D.O. of the 22nd Instt about placing Pt. Basava Rudraya in charge of the Dy. Treasury you say that owing to the absence of the Munsiff Mr. Krishna-swamiengar on leave from the 10th July to the 22nd March 1902, Mr. Subramaniengar of Dgr had to be detained at HD Rs. for charge of the Dy. Treasury. In Govt. Notification No. 13983 of 24th July on J. 1177

Mr. R. Narasimmiengar was appointed to act as Munsiff in place of Mr.
Krishnaswamiengar
I shall feel obliged by your telling me ~~for information~~ for the information of Govt ~~as to~~ why the acting Munsiff was not placed in charge of the Treasury.

Yours Sincerely
